

Dr. Jason Liveris

Position

Orthopedic Surgeon specialized in Spine Surgery

Work Experience

- Active in Spine Surgery since 2003 with extensive experience in a wide range of cases both conventional as well as minimal intervention techniques
- Senior Associate of the Spine Dept. of the Athens Brain & Spine Surgery, a pioneer of the minimal intervention techniques in spine surgery acclaimed worldwide
- Member of the World Spinal Column Society
- 15 year presence in all Spine National Conferences
- Extensive experience in surgical treatment of bone and periprosthetic infections, oncological surgery of musculoskeletal system, arthroplastic amendments, adult axis treatment
- October 2010: Commencement of Private Practice in 25 Eftychidou st., Athens
- April 2010: Acquisition of Specialization in Orthopedics
- 2005- 2010: Internship in Orthopedics in the 1st University Clinic for Orthopedics (initially at στο KAT and then at «ATTIKO»)
- 2007: 6month training in hand-microsurgery and hand-surgery in the respective dept. of KAT clinic
- 2006: Practical training in microsurgery in the Research Laboratory of Musculoskeletal System Disease “Th. Garofalides”
- 2003- 2004: Training extension in salaried position in the orthopedic clinic and the neurosurgical dept. of the General Prefectural Hospital of Arta for two semesters
- 2002- 2003: Completion of prerequisite training in general surgery at the General Prefectural Hospital of Arta
- 2001- 2002: Service as a rural general practitioner in the Voulgareli Health Centre
- 2001: 3month training in the Cardiovascular clinic of the dept. of Pathology & Surgery at the General Prefectural Hospital of Arta
- 1999-2000: served as a doctor in the healthcare dept. of the Hellenic Airforce as part of the military service. Received first-aid training

Education

- 1990- 1998: Enrollment and graduation from the Medical School of the University of Modena & Reggio Emilia, including a 6month training at the University Hospital of Modena
- 1998: Acquisition of the License for General Practice of the Medical-Surgical School of the University of Modena & Reggio Emilia
- 1998: Completion of dissertation: “Diagnostic approach of benign tumors of peripheral neurons of the upper extremity by MRI”
- 2004: Participated in the National Neurosurgical Conference with a presentation regarding the use of central catheters immersed in antibiotics in the abdomen-peritoneal shunt
- Native speaker of Italian, good knowledge of English, fair knowledge of French.

Interests

History, Literature, zoology, paleontology, art, trekking, travelling.